2 PM	Dance Class						POLYNESIAN CENTER Our final tour activity will be a full day at the Polynesian Cultural Center where we will travel through time and space as you experience thousands of years worth of culture from six different island nations, each with its own flavor and appeal. Flower lei greeting @ the Alii Luau Buffet with live entertainment. We end the tour with the power of HA: Breath of Life, an action-packed story of passion ignited by fire, song, and dance, featuring over 100 Polynesian performers from across the Pacific.
3 PM	Dance Class	LEARN TO SURF IN WAIKIKI Surfing literally began as the "Sport of Kings" in Hawaii. In the early 20th century, legendary surfer, Olympic swimmer and Waikiki native Duke Kahanamoku introduced the sport to the world. This is where you will learn to surf.	Haona Blowhole	RELAX @ WAIKIKI BEACH	PRIVATE CATAMARAN TOUR Get ready to go snorkling on the 64ft Makani. No expense was spared when building the magnificent 1.8 million dollar yacht. Sail off into the Hawaiian sunset, snorkel, sail or indulge in a cocktail.	WAIMANALO BEACH DAY Spend the afternoon at Waimanalo beach. This is the kind of place that makes you blink to make sure you're not dreaming. The main attraction here is the ocean, which looks azure blue even on a cloudy day. Waimanalo is lined by the longest uninterrupted white-sand beach on Oahu.
4 PM	Dance Class		LIGHT HOUSE HIKE The giant lens of the Makapu'u Lighthouse is the largest of its kind and is still in operation today. As your walking to the summit, you'll take in views of Oahu's rugged landscapes.	YOGA @ SUNSET ON WAIKIKI BEACH
